

2018 REV. WILLIAM A. TOOHEY, C.S.C., AWARD FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

The recipient of the 2018 Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Social Justice is known not only for her scholarship and as a beloved teacher but also as a person who lives her faith through a humble yet powerful witness to the Gospel in her daily life. A 1987 Notre Dame graduate who later returned to earn master's and doctoral degrees in moral theology and Christian ethics, she holds a joint appointment in the Department of Theology and the Center for Social Concerns, focusing her research on areas such as Catholic social thought, racial justice, ecological ethics, ecumenical dialogue, and peace studies. Her work in the community has included founding a grocery co-op and co-founding the St. Peter Claver Catholic Worker House, where she continues to live. In 2012, she won Notre Dame's Grenville Clark Award for service advancing the cause of peace and human rights.

The University of Notre Dame is proud to present the 2018 Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Social Justice to

Margaret R. Pfeil

*Associate Teaching Professor,
Department of Theology and Center for Social Concerns*