2018 New Faculty Teaching Workshop

We invite you to participate in this workshop for newly hired faculty on August 13th from 9:00 am to 3:30 pm and August 14th from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. Lunch will be provided each day. The workshop follows an interactive learning model featuring short presentations, individual work on a course you will teach, and collaboration with colleagues and Kaneb Center staff. You will also meet and interact with a number of Kaneb Faculty Fellows, a select group of experienced faculty members recognized for their excellent teaching, during breakout sessions and at lunch.

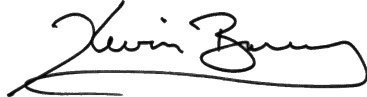

During the workshop, you will consider and apply a variety of practices to enhancing student learning in your courses. Upon successful completion of the workshop you will be able to:

- Articulate clear student learning goals for your course.
- Apply assignment-centered course planning.
- Plan engaging activities for your classroom.
- Refine strategies for grading and responding to student work.
- Consider technologies you might integrate in the teaching and learning process.

Additionally, you will have the opportunity to choose among The Courage to Teach: Exploring the Inner Landscape of a Teacher's Life, What the Best College Teachers Do, Teaching and Learning STEM, or another teaching and learning related book to add to your library.

We look forward to seeing you at the workshop. In the meantime, do not hesitate to contact us if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Kevin Barry
