

2019 REV. WILLIAM A. TOOHEY, C.S.C., AWARD FOR PREACHING

This year's recipient of the Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Preaching has worked with the U.S. Congress, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and the Vatican, among others, on issues of theology, globalization, migration, and refugees. He is the executive producer of several films and documentaries—including the award-winning Dying to Live: A Migrant's Journey—and his preaching reflects a steadfast commitment to the plight of migrants and refugees. Through deeply inspired and thoughtful homilies, he connects his extensive understanding of global poverty and violence to his passionate belief in the particular presence of God in the lives of vulnerable and suffering individuals. From students and faculty to world leaders in the Church and international affairs, those who have heard him preach find their hearts and minds profoundly affected by his words.

The University of Notre Dame is proud to present the 2019 Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Preaching to

Rev. Daniel G. Groody, C.S.C.

Associate Professor of Theology and Global Affairs