The winner of the Rev. Paul J. Foik, C.S.C., Award for library faculty was described by one of her many nominators as “a joy to work with and an invaluable colleague.” A graduate of Notre Dame, she returned to the University in 2009 to join the Thomas Mahaffey, Jr. Business Library, where faculty and students alike draw on her expertise as they plan and pursue their research. She is especially well-known for her ability to connect students to the libraries’ vast network of data sources in precise ways that serve their particular projects. Attentive to faculty and student research needs, she is tireless in her efforts to enhance the digital and print holdings of the business library. Additionally, she has integrated library resources into countless classroom sessions across the undergraduate and graduate programs in the Mendoza College of Business.
