

2020 PRESIDENT'S AWARD

The President's Award recognizes distinguished service to the University over an extended period of time. The second of 2020's co-honorees has spent 20-plus years at the Kellogg Institute for International Studies—first as the associate and then as the managing director—raising virtually every aspect of the institute to new levels of excellence. Thanks to her, Kellogg directors past and present have had a true partner in leading the institute, one they have called upon to help shape and manage a number of the core offerings that today give Kellogg its distinctive profile, including its visiting fellows program, faculty grants system, working groups, and research clusters. She has at the same time served as the principal supervisor for the vast majority of the institute's staff. Colleagues from both Notre Dame and elsewhere laud her as the Kellogg Institute's heart, its institutional memory, and its unsung hero.

The University of Notre Dame is proud to present the 2020 President's Award to
