

2021 New Faculty Teaching Workshop

We invite you to participate in our course design and teaching strategy workshop for newly hired faculty on August 16 (8:30 am to 3:30 pm) and 17th (8:30 am to 2:00 pm). The workshop follows an interactive model featuring short presentations, time for individual work on a course you will teach, and collaboration with colleagues and Notre Dame Learning staff. You will also meet and interact with experienced faculty members recognized for their excellent teaching.

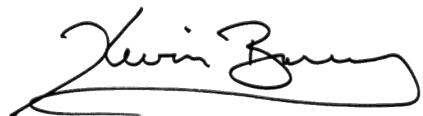

During the workshop, you will consider and apply a variety of practices to enhance student learning in your courses. Upon successful completion of the workshop, you will be able to:

- Articulate clear student learning goals for your course.
- Apply assignment-centered course planning.
- Describe and implement inclusive teaching practices.
- Plan engaging activities for your classroom.
- Describe the culture of teaching and its evaluation at Notre Dame.

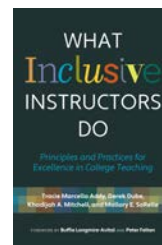

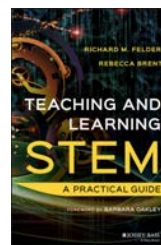

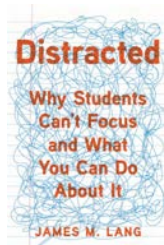

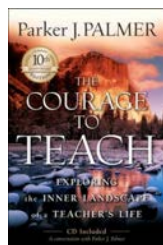

Additionally, you will have the opportunity to select a book on teaching, from among The Courage to Teach, Distracted: Why Students Can't Focus and What You Can Do About It, What the Best College Teachers Do, Teaching and Learning STEM, or What Inclusive Instructors Do, and we will purchase a copy for you.

We look forward to seeing you at the workshop. In the meantime, do not hesitate to contact us at kaneb@nd.edu if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Kevin Barry, Senior Director
Notre Dame Learning | Kaneb Center for Teaching Excellence

The Kaneb Center for Teaching Excellence supports the pursuit of teaching excellence by stimulating scholarly reflection and conversation about teaching and encouraging the adoption of practices that enhance learning.
