

2022 REV. WILLIAM A. TOOHEY, C.S.C., AWARD FOR PREACHING

The Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Preaching is given to a Holy Cross priest who has made significant contributions to the University of Notre Dame in many different ways, but in particular as a homilist. Rev. Kevin Grove, C.S.C., serves as an assistant professor in the Department of Theology, as priest-in-residence with the men of Dunne Hall, and chaplain to the Master of Divinity Program. He brings creative, thought-provoking, and pastoral homilies to a great variety of communities across campus through his generous willingness to preach and teach. His ability to genuinely connect and integrate his academic, pastoral, spiritual, and community roles in all aspects of who he is gives his preaching a depth and an authenticity that leaves a long-lasting impact on all who hear his homilies. With insightful humor and memorable images, he reminds us that to love one another and believe wholeheartedly that God loves us are the joyful tasks of our lifetimes.

The University of Notre Dame is proud to present the 2022 Rev. William A. Toohey, C.S.C., Award for Preaching to
