

2023 New Faculty Teaching Workshop

We invite you to participate in our course design and teaching strategy workshop for newly hired faculty on August 14th (8:30 am to 4:00 pm) and 15th (8:30 am to 2:00 pm) in DeBartolo Hall Room 228. Lunch will be provided both days. The workshop follows an interactive model featuring short presentations, time for individual work on a course you will teach, and collaboration with colleagues and Kaneb Center staff. You will also meet and interact with experienced faculty members recognized for their excellent teaching.

During the workshop, you will explore and apply a variety of practices to enhance student learning in your courses. Upon successful completion of the workshop, you will be able to:

- Apply the backward course design process for more effective student learning
- Describe and implement inclusive teaching practices.
- Plan engaging activities for your classroom.
- Describe the culture of teaching and its evaluation at Notre Dame.

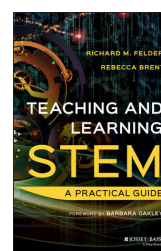

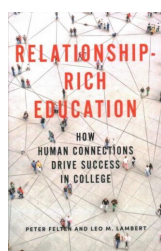

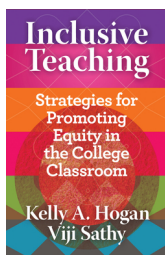

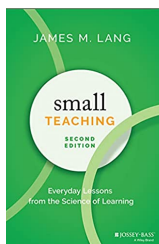

Additionally, you will have the opportunity to select a book on teaching, from among Small Teaching, Inclusive Teaching, Relationship-Rich Education, or Teaching and Learning STEM and we will purchase a copy for you.

We look forward to seeing you at the workshop. In the meantime, do not hesitate to contact us at kaneb@nd.edu if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Kristi Rudenga, Director
Notre Dame Learning | Kaneb Center for Teaching Excellence

The Kaneb Center for Teaching Excellence supports the pursuit of teaching excellence by stimulating scholarly reflection and conversation about teaching and encouraging the adoption of practices that enhance learning.
