
2023 REV. PAUL J. FOIK, C.S.C., AWARD

The Rev. Paul J. Foik, C.S.C., Award is given to a library faculty member who has contributed significantly to library service to the Notre Dame community or to the library profession through personal scholarship or substantive engagement in professional associations. This year's recipient, Alan Krieger, has been described as "the eternal Platonic ideal of a librarian" incarnate and as a "phenomenal librarian" whose scholarship and service are stellar. As theology/philosophy librarian, he has developed collections in theology and Jewish studies in diverse locations from the Hesburgh Library to the Tantur Ecumenical Institute. His commitment to sharing these resources beyond Notre Dame has fostered inquiry in the larger world of theological research. His leadership in professional societies and his especially active role in the Catholic Research Resources Alliance consortium mean that his contributions extend far beyond our campus.

The University of Notre Dame is proud to present the 2023 Rev. Paul J. Foik, C.S.C., Award to
